

Work With Me

Programme 1

For the person who's ready to start making real changes, at a pace that works around their life

— Fortnightly WhatsApp Coaching Sessions

Every two weeks, we'll connect through voice notes and messaging for a dedicated coaching session built around you, where you're at, what's coming up and what needs to shift via WhatsApp. We will work through the thoughts that keep you stuck, build habits that actually stick and create a clear path forward so you're not just surviving your week, you're moving through it with more intention and ease.

→ Each session includes a progress review, honest reflection on what's working and what isn't. We will also look at practical next steps tailored to your life right now.

— Weekday Support Between Sessions

Life doesn't pause between sessions and neither does your support. You'll have access to light weekday check-ins for those moments when you need a grounding word, a nudge back on track, or just someone in your corner.

Response times are within 24-48 working hours.

— App Access

You'll have access to a curated library of tools and resources, practical exercises, emotional regulation frameworks and educational content all designed to support your growth between sessions and beyond.

Investment: £36.75 per week/£147.00 per month
Minimum 6-month commitment

Programme 2

For the person who's done with half measures and wants consistent, close support to create real change faster

— Fortnightly Zoom Coaching Sessions

Fortnightly, we will meet for a dedicated one-to-one session focused entirely on your progress. We'll go deeper, working through patterns, beliefs and behaviours that have been keeping you stuck and build personalised strategies that meet you where you are and move you forward with clarity and confidence.

→ Fully tailored to your goals, challenges, and lifestyle. No generic advice.

— Priority Weekday WhatsApp Support

Between sessions, you'll have priority access to ongoing support, whether you're navigating a difficult moment, need accountability to follow through, or simply want to think something through with someone who knows your journey. You won't be left to figure it out alone.

Response times are prioritised within working hours.

— Full App Access

Complete access to all tools, frameworks, reflective exercises, and educational content within the app. Everything you need to support your growth in and out of sessions

— Exclusive Masterclasses & Group Chat

You'll be invited into a private client community and receive access to exclusive masterclasses. This is a space to keep learning, share your progress, ask questions and feel genuinely supported by people on a similar path.
